

PRESS RELEASEitelligence and SRB Consulting Team announce partnership

Vienna (Austria), October 27, 2006 - Today, itelligence and SRB Consulting Team are to announce their sales partnership in Austria. SRB Consulting Team is incorporating the mySAP All-in-One industry solution from itelligence, it.metal, into their business portfolio. As a local consulting company, SRB Consulting Team will actively market it.metal in Austria in the future. The resulting projects will be implemented together by itelligence and SRB Consulting Team.

SRB Consulting Team is the leading consulting company in the metal industry in Austria and has been a proven SAP partner for many years with reference customers such as Böhler Uddeholm, Hörbiger Ventilwerke, the voestalpine Group and Welser Profile.

According to Wolfgang Sanytr, CEO of SRB Consulting Team, "it.metal is the optimal extension of the solution and service portfolio from SRB and our mySAP All-in-One industry solution, myMetal.SRB. With this combination, we are now covering all important customary processes in this industry. It is a perfect basis for successful cooperation."

"We are pleased that we have truly found the optimal synthesis for the marketing of it.metal with the cooperation of SRB Consulting Team and itelligence" explains Klaus Heidenreich, itelligence Austria.

it.metal

In many areas of the industry, SAP has established itself as an ERP standard. With it.metal, the SAP specialist, itelligence, offers an industry solution for the metal industry, which already covers a range of indispensable industry-specifics. This includes price lists and values for materials containing non-ferrous metals, for example. The data can be quickly structured and transparently retrieved in order to minimize foreign exchange risks. For companies in the non-ferrous metal industry, effective risk management is important for survival.
